JODI KING ACOUSTIC EP AND EXCLUSIVE SHOWCASE DATES

WINNIPEG, MB – JUNE 6, 2007 – Winnipeg-born singer/songwriter Jodi King celebrates the official release of her hotly anticipated Acoustic EP with two CD release parties at Winnipeg's Park Theatre on Thursday, June 21 and Friday, June 22.

The stripped back acoustic productions range from upbeat and driving to melancholic and introspective, and spotlight Jodi's magnetic voice, resulting in pop music that is that is reminiscent of KT Tunstall and Corinne Bailey Rae, but with an emphasis on Jodi's natural ability to play piano.

In addition to performing Rhodes on the project, Jodi King co-wrote five of the disc's six songs with Aware/Columbia recording artist Kyle Riabko and Juno-nominated producer Colin Munroe. The EP's closing song, I Live For You, was written by Chris Burke-Gaffney. Toronto producer/engineer Adam King (Ohbijou, Run With The Kittens and Jill Barber) recorded and mixed the EP over a week-long period in April with Noah Mintz (Sarah Slean, Feist) handling mastering duties.

The disc offers fans a glimpse into Jodi's music as she prepares to commence recording of a full-length LP, tentatively scheduled for an early 2008 release.

The EP will be available for purchase online on Thursday June 21st on iTunes and via www.jodiking.com and www.maplemusic.com.

In support of the release of the EP, Jodi will be performing select dates in the Winnipeg area, including two CD release parties at The Park Theatre and an opening slot for Sony/BMG recording artist, DB Clifford at Old Market Square on Canada Day, July 1st. A 10-date trek of Roots stores across Western Canada will follow.
